Dear Friends

As we move towards the Autumn our next show should help lift those flagging spirits as we present An Evening with Stoppard and Fitzgerald. Two one act plays that are being directed for us by Jack and Elizabeth Harding. This production will open in Tedburn St Mary Village Hall and then head over to Longdown Village Hall for the rest of the run. Performance dates are 25th, 26th, 27th & 28th September with curtain up, in both venues, at our usual time of 7.30pm.

Porcelain and Pink by F Scott Fitzgerald is a witty case of mistaken identity in which the main character spends the entire length of the play in a bathtub. Enough said! And The Real Inspector Hound by Tom Stoppard is a mad-cap, whodunnit play-within-a-play which promises laughter, three murders and twists and turns galore.

Please book your seats and your pasties for these comical plays using the form below. We hope to see you all again in September at either Tedburn St Mary or Longdown village halls!
